Scripture Readings

Psalms 23 (NRSV)

¹The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want.

² He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;*

³ he restores my soul.*

He leads me in right paths*
for his name's sake.

⁴Even though I walk through the darkest valley,*
I fear no evil;

for you are with me;
your rod and your staff—
they comfort me.

⁵You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;

my cup overflows.
⁶Surely* goodness and mercy* shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
my whole life long.*

John 10:1-10 (NRSV)

¹Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. ²The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. ³The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.* ⁶Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them. ⁷So again Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. ¹⁰The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.'

BLUE RIBBON DAY APRIL 18th!

The blue ribbons available today out in the narthex each have a name of one of the 1,319 at-risk children Presbyterian Children's Service cared for last year. Wearing blue in April is a tradition started by a grandmother in Virginia who tied a blue ribbon to the antenna of her van as a tribute to her 3-year old grandson who had died at the hands of his mother's abusive boyfriend. Blue reminds us of the bruises vulnerable children in our community wear everyday. Before today is over 3 more children will die of abuse (almost all are under 3 years of age). Thank you for taking a stand by wearing blue this week.
